

It is quite useful to have a different standard for not-complicated entities audit in Iran.

Many clients are very simple entities with not so many stakeholders.

Audit fees are very low; even limited assurance would meet their needs.